

The circulation of The Review covers the field like the evening dew; several times larger than the combined newspapers of High Point, being read in practically every home in the city and in the suburbs. Advertisers take notice.

THE REVIEW

"High Point for High Point," that's the slogan. Keep your money in High Point; trade with High Point merchants; buy everything you can in High Point at all times; that's the foundation for a Greater High Point.

The Review is read and appreciated by that large body of people who buy four-fifths of the goods sold in High Point---the laboring people

Tent of the Knights of the Maccabees of the World Instituted.

Thursday night in the Junior Order Hall a tent of the K. O. T. M. of the World was instituted by State Commander Geo. C. Morton of Charlotte with 25 charter members.

The name given the new lodge is Guilford Tent No. 25. The meeting night will probably be Friday, the committee having the matter in hand to decide on hall and meeting. Sometime in January the degree team from Greensboro will come over and exemplify the work.

The Maccabees are quite strong in the States and is the strongest financial fraternal society in the United States, having eighteen million dollars worth of assets. The secret work is quite pretty and the features good and it is expected to have a much larger membership in the future. Drs. H. W. McCain and S. S. Coe are the medical advisers. The first officers of the Tent elected Thursday night are:

Sir Knight Commander—W. L. Stamey.

Sir Knight Lt. Commander—John P. Beck.

Sir Knight Past Commander—S. S. Coe.

Sir Knight Record Keeper—Jesse S. Dennis.

Sir Knight Chaplain—James T. Foister.

Sir Knight Sergeant—Jas. R. Hiatt.

Sir Knight Master-at Arms—Ray Von Curtis.

Sir Knight First Master of the Guards—Thos. P. Andrews.

Sir Knight Second Master of the Guards—W. W. York.

Sir Knight Sentinel—Davie H. Hayworth.

Sir Knight Picket—R. P. Pope.

Trustees—Sir Knights H. W. McCain, T. J. Moser and W. L. Stamey.

There will be no meeting next week on account of the holidays. Next meeting night called for January 8th.

Horse Thief Had a Short Career

Greensboro, Dec. 20—Charles Bailiff, a young white man, who last night stole a valuable horse owned by W. R. Reece here, had a rather short career after bidding farewell to Greensboro. He was arrested in Winston-Salem about noon while trying to sell the horse.

Last night he went to the stable of Mr. Reece, took the horse and left the city.

He left behind a note to his father, saying he was leaving. In it he also abused his father at Greensboro.

Arriving at Winston-Salem he was about to sell the horse when the buyer grew suspicious and under a pretense of going to the bank, went to the police station. He found there a description of the missing animal. Bailiff was arrested and will be brought here for trial. The horse was a thoroughbred and a valuable animal.

The funeral services of the late Squire J. W. Guire, were held at the First M. P. church Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. A. G. Dixon, the pastor, officiating.

T. V. Edmunds, of Winston-Salem, is here looking after his property interests.

The young ladies of the Philathea class of the First M. P. church held their bazaar Saturday, December 20.

R. C. Millikan, clerk at the Elwood, has resigned and has gone to Greensboro. Mr. Millikan is succeeded by R. F. Cook, of Burlington, clerk.

Mrs. Anna M. Griffith, of Lexington author of some new works on the New Testament, especially of the studies of the life of Christ and some charts, on the life of St. Paul, is here visiting Mrs. D. W. Flemming.

Light and Darkness.

In Africa there is a church with 906 members that less than five years ago had never heard of Christ, but which today is supporting 123 missionaries to other African tribes. One other church with 300 members, to whom less than three years ago the name of Jesus had never been spoken, is supporting fifty-one missionaries.

What an inspiration this should be to American Christians!

There Was No Mistake.

Dentist—"I can't understand this at all. You say this tooth has never been worked on before, but I find small flakes of gold on my instrument."

Patient (calmly)—"Oh, that's all right. I think you've struck my back collar button."

R. B. Terry has purchased the entire interest of the Dalton Furniture Co., which he has so successfully managed for the past several years.

There will be Xmas exercises at Marr's chapel tonight, Monday.

Elder P. D. Gold, father of Mrs. G. W. Clark of this city, was married last week to Mrs. E. A. Burton of Winston.

Attorney C. C. Barnhardt of this city was united in marriage to Miss Mamie Plunket in Grace M. P. Church, Greensboro, Wednesday evening. The bride is one of Greensboro's attractive young ladies; the groom is one of High Point's promising attorneys.

When you eat your Xmas turkey and other good things, be glad that you are so fortunate and take time to give thanks, remembering that there are countless thousands at that very hour hungering for even the coarsest food. Oh! that humanity could practice brotherly love or even the milk of human kindness.

Christmas came too soon this time—anyway it seems that way to a man the older he gets.

Plenty of egg nog will be done away with during the holidays all over the country and of course old booze will cut a big item too.

Thomasville doesn't like the idea of accommodating the surrounding country to liquor and The Times of that place has already registered a kick.

The various churches will have Xmas exercises during the holidays.

School closed Friday until Monday January 5th and the children are making the most of it.

Looks like not a family in High Point will go without a good Xmas dinner, since all agencies are at work to see that something good is coming their way, the Salvation Army, secret societies and individuals.

The Review this year omitted its empty stocking fund for the poor children on account of the fact that other agencies have the work in charge, so we have contributed our part to them.

The merchants wish it was Christmas every day in the year or in other words something that would make business as brisk as during the approaching holidays.

High Point Lodge No. 1155, B. P. O. Elks, now numbers among its members Mr. Fleer, the millionaire chewing gum man. He's a pretty good fellow with it, too.

The Review office will be closed until the first of the year, after Wednesday evening Dec. 24th. If you desire any work done let us have it before that time please.

A safe and sane Christmas is the thing. Don't fool with danger, as many deaths are reported each year on account of carelessness. Remember it is dangerous to fool with anything that looks like danger.

Soon be time for the new postmaster to take charge. Wonder if one can tell the difference when the democrats take the reins from the republicans. Nothing like a jarring noise will be felt, don't expect. Anyway it is good to note Democracy coming into her own.

The county commissioner matter will soon be settled. We trust that Clerk of the Court Grant will name a straight line democrat and not a mug wump.

When a person is sent out soliciting for any worthy cause, he should be a man above reproach, and the responses will be more liberal. A man whom the people have no confidence in is not the right man to ask for money.

"Blow your money with us" is a catchy window stunt at the Cannon & Fetzer Co.

Moffitt Furnishing Co. is ready to serve you in many useful gifts.

High Point has not had a salaried county office but one time in 40 years and that was under a Republican administration.

Issued On Monday This Week.

The Review comes to you on Monday this week on account of the near approach of Christmas. Remember next week there will be no paper but commencing again the week following we will keep up the regular weekly visits as heretofore. Again Merry Xmas and Happy New Year to all.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK

As usual with The Review, and many of the weekly papers, there will be no issue of The Review next week, but we will commence again the week following, January 8th. This week we take off once a year to give the printers a rest and to clean up and get ready for the New Year, this being the only time of the year a printer gets any vacation and we know our many readers will agree that they deserve it, from the editor down to the printer's devil in the shop.

We take this occasion to wish one and all a very merry Xmas and Happy New Year and trust that 1914 will contain 365 days of happiness for each and all of our big family.

We hope during the coming year to make The Review much better in every way and with your support we will.

All those who owe us are requested to kindly pay up and start the New Year right with us. Some of you have been owing quit a while and we have waited patiently, don't you think so?

A newspaper deserves every cent it gets out of subscriptions which do not pay for the work incident to delivering the paper to you and the efforts of the editor should be appreciated enough to come square with him as the word goes.

BIRD S. COLER TALKS ON SUBJECT EUGENICS.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—If the policy of teaching eugenics to the children in the public schools is persisted in, the race will die out in 150 years," said Bird S. Coler, former county clerk of New York City, in an address last night before the Industrial club of Chicago on "Patriotism and Philanthropy."

"What are you going to do about the children whose minds are filled with the false science of a bankrupt materialism?" asked the speaker. "What of the foulness that fills our theaters and imperils those incomprehensible products of a sick sentimentalism, the sex hygienics, to put matters in the hands of children which the government bans from the mails."

Mr. Coler said he based his assertion regarding a dead race in 150 years upon birth rate statistics of a college for women, where eugenics and sex hygiene have been taught for many years.

SIGNIFICANT FACTS

The Office of Public Roads in Washington has lately compiled some interesting and significant facts and figures showing in a very effective manner the great value of improved highways. These are summarized by the Charlotte Chronicle as follows: "A canvass of twenty-five counties in twelve states was made and the result showed that in these, the number of inhabitants from 1890 to 1900 decreased seventy five thousand, eight hundred and twenty-three, an average decrease of more than three thousand for each county. The road improvement in these counties was only one and five tenths per cent. In the same states twenty-five other counties where the road improvement was forty per cent during the same period were chosen for comparison; and it was found that these had increased in population seven hundred and seventy eight thousand, three hundred and eighty three, an average of nearly thirty-two thousand in each county.

Such facts and figures as those given above show unmistakably, if indeed any proof of such a self evident fact were needed, that there is a very close connection between good roads and prosperity and that the counties that are doing most to improve their highways are the ones which are securing the largest number of new residents. The good roads movement is not only of value in making conditions better for those already living in a community but it constitutes a potent factor in attracting people from other localities.—Ex.

Fire Chief Horney is still confined to his room with rheumatism, but is some better.

The work is progressing nicely on the new First Methodist Episcopal church on North Main street.

A sacred Cantata was given Sunday night at Washington Street M. E. Church, to which a large crowd gathered and were highly entertained.

ATTENTION MACCABEES!

The next meeting will be held in the Junior Order hall Thursday night January 1st, at 7:30 p. m. Please be on hand. All applications until the Charter is closed may be taken at $2.50 each. Get busy! W. L. Stamey, S. K. Commander.

FREIGHT HEARING IS CONCLUDED.

Chairman Clark Completes Work at Greensboro—Rates To Go Into Effect.

Greensboro, Dec. 18.—The hearing on the petition of the carriers to put into effect the new freight rates in North Carolina and the intervening petition of Virginia cities against it was concluded before Chairman Edgar E. Clark, of the Interstate Commerce Commission today. Three days had been consumed in the examination of witnesses and the introduction of voluminous exhibits. The entire record will be a big one and it will take the commission sometime to go into it. The impression prevails that a temporary order will be made by the commission permitting the rates to go into effect, and if upon examination of the record the commission is of the opinion that the rates are unfair to other points the temporary order will be revoked. After the hearing, members of the State Corporation Commission, other representatives of the State, the carriers and shippers feel confident that the ultimate result will favor North Carolina.

Chairman Clark, representative of the Virginia cities and the Carolina officers left on afternoon and evening trains for their homes. The attitude of Chairman Clark, who is a Iowaian, as presiding officer was fair to all parties, but several expressions of his indicated that he believed in giving effect to agreements between railroads and shippers that reduce rates. He and other members of the commission are open to conviction, however, and will no doubt hear arguments of counsel upon the record at an early date.

At the opening of this morning's session Mr. James, attorney for the Virginia cities, recalled Mr. E. E. Williamson, a rate expert of Washington, who testified for the intervenors. He was cross-examined by Mr. Travis, Mr. Forester and others. He was the principal witness for the intervening Virginia cities. He showed a thorough familiarity with rates and rate structures, and was primed and prepared for the examination.

One or two other witnesses were recalled, after which the hearing was adjourned.

Do You Want an Artesian Well?

NOW'S YOUR CHANCE

The machinery for drilling wells is now near you and can be put in operation on your place at once.

An artesian well has just been installed at Thacker's Dairy where 10 gallons of pure water flows every minute—the deeper the well the more water per minute.

By putting in an Artesian well you get absolutely pure water [no surface or unhealthy water] and the cost is very little more than the ordinary well.

Being here with our machinery we are able to name you a very attractive price.
